Quality Manager Announced

Greg Weaver to take over as Quality Manager for Vibrant.

Albuquerque, NM – June 23, 2008 – Vibrant Corporation announced today it has filled the position of Quality Manager with Greg Weaver.

Greg brings over 9 years of experience to Vibrant Corporation from Chromalloy Nevada. He was the Quality Assurance/Non Destructive Testing Manager before joining Vibrant. Greg holds a Radiography and Liquid Penetrant ANST Level III certification. "What a score for Vibrant Corporation," said Vibrant CEO Lem Hunter. "We could not have found a more capable person for the position". Greg will be instrumental in maintaining our ISO 9001:2000 and AS9100B certifications." continued Hunter.

Highlights of Greg's career include development of numerous nondestructive testing inspections for both high-pressure and low-pressure turbine components. He is a US Navy veteran and has a Bachelor's degree from the University of Nevada Reno. Greg has an extensive background in turbine component repair, manufacturing, and inspection. He is excited and ready to get PCRT implemented into the Aerospace industry.
