ISO 9001:2000 and AS9100B Certification Achieved

Vibrant Quality Management System Certified to ISO 9001:2000 and AS9100B.

Albuquerque, NM – February 28, 2008 – Company officials announced today that Vibrant Corporation has a quality management system that is now certified to ISO 9001:2000 and AS9100 Rev. B.

Vibrant CEO Lem Hunter said “I knew we could do it. It’s a team effort and this is very important in any operation.” “We contracted with PRI Registrar for our certification needs and we believe they are part of our team,” said Hunter.

“We are very pleased to have this certification to support our nondestructive testing technology,” said Laura Beltemacchi, Quality System Manager. “Vibrant’s quality process for Process Compensated Resonance Testing now conforms to this prestigious certification. I couldn’t be happier,” said Beltemacchi.
